

You may be familiar with ExpertVoice, the online community where industry professionals can get exclusive discounts on outdoor products. POWDR and ExpertVoice have collaborated to bring employees an improved POWDR employee experience with the same opportunities to save on brands like Big Agnes, SMITH, 686, Mammut and Dakine, to name a few.

As an employee of POWDR, you're viewed as an industry expert who brings a passion for sport, amazing experiences and having fun. To help feed your passions, we're thrilled to provide access for you through ExpertVoice to test, review and recommend your favorite gear. Other benefits of ExpertVoice include: a seamless experience with POWDR teams under one unified POWDR ExpertVoice account; flexibility for employees to ship products to office or home locations; ExpertVoice's in-house credentialing team to review and approve employee applications. (New applications and renewals are required to provide proof of employment via a paystub)
