COPPER MOUNTAIN RESORT GENERAL SAFETY RULES

COPPER MOUNTAIN

- Observe your surroundings and work area to identify and eliminate hazards. If you can safely correct a hazard, do it ! Otherwise report the situation to your supervisor.
- Know and comply with safety regulations for your job, wear Personal Protective Equipment (PPE) and encourage others to do so as well.
- Know the location of mountain phones, first-aid kits, fire extinguishers and how to use them.
- Do not operate any machinery or company vehicles without having received the proper training and management authorization.
- Do not operate any company vehicle or personal vehicle for work without full compliance with the company's driving standards and all other related documents.
- Know and comply with the Colorado Ski Safety Act and Your Responsibility Code and encourage others to do so as well

COPPER MOUNTAIN

- Playing and working safely is everyone's responsibility.
- Copper expects a commitment from you to know, observe and promote safe practices.
- If you are involved in an on-mountain collision with a fellow employee or guest you must exchange names and contact information and report the incident immediately to ski patrol and your manager—even if no injuries were sustained.
- It's your responsibility to follow specific resort and departmental safety procedures for the safety of our guests and other employees.
- Know the emergency procedures for the on-mountain and Village areas.
- Protect and barricade hazardous areas, and report the situation to your supervisor ASAP.

COPPER MOUNTAIN

- Always stay hydrated, drink water throughout the day.
- During free ski time, “Practice Bromance” and Ski with a Buddy.
- Be prepared for ever changing weather conditions, wear appropriate warm clothing and dress in layers.
- During the winter you will be walking on snow and slippery terrain, wear durable alpine boots and be extra careful when walking in ski boots.
- When outdoors even for a short period of time, wear sunscreen on exposed parts of your body. At these elevations, the sun's rays can be dangerous to unprotected skin, even during those clouding days.
- If while injured on the job, report the incident immediately to your supervisor. Failure to report could result in your claim being denied by our Insurance Carrier.
